VERA STRUBI JOINS MEMSCAP BOARD OF DIRECTOR

The Group welcomes a new independent board member replacing Seventure

Grenoble, France and Durham, North Carolina, April 3, 2007– MEMSCAP (Euronext: MEMS), the leading provider of innovative solutions based on MEMS (micro-electro-mechanical systems) technology, today announces Mrs Valérie Gombart, board member permanent representative of Seventure leaves the board and Mrs Vera Strübi, independent board member is appointed concomitantly.

Historical investor and board member since MEMSCAP beginnings, Mrs Gombart, permanent representative of Seventure, former Spof Venture, leaves the board for reasons linked to investment funds normal practices, and with the full assent of the other board members. In the many years while she held a board member position, Mrs Gombart has been part of the Group evolution, bringing a faithful and pertinent support throughout the many phases of its history, leading today to a Group with healthy financials and business and a strong growth.

The position being vacant, the Board of directors has appointed Mrs Vera Strübi, independent board member. With a carrier in the cosmetics industry, including at Groupe Y.S.L Parfums, Monteil France and Montana Parfums International, Vera Strübi has had a major impact on the perfume history with the creation of the now mythical 'Angel', realised while she was CEO of Thierry Mugler Parfums, a position she held until end 2006. Vera will bring to MEMSCAP and more specifically its subsidiary IntuiSkin, her cosmetics expertise and her industrial experience in the creation and commercialisation of innovating products, as well as her know-how in the field of large consumer business strategy.
